

Cop Lights – PINK i

You pulled up at the gaslight
Tossed out all my black pride
That was sure to be my last right
That's why I hugged my momma last night, last night

Now I'm dancing to your flashlight
A nasty kinda appetite
But try your might to know me in your heart tonight
When you hold me in your cuffs tonight, my cuff's so tight

Maybe the whites in my eyes will save my life
Maybe tonight he won't try and take my life
Waiting in the cop car, lights so bright
It's their bloody addiction, but it's me who pays the price

Pulled up at the gaslight
Could have been my last night
So I'm sure to keep it down, quiet
I sure love being different, but I need to stay alive

pause

I need to stay alive, but I should rock the boat
The pigs are swimming by
I sing for high fives, we're on the radio
Can't hear our black lives, though

It's a dark sight, my eyes fade to white
But I don't shake the dice
Even if I play it nice, they don't blink twice
So watch for cop lights (so watch for cop lights)
